ST. JOSEPH’S COLLEGE
CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

I. Introduction

A. Rationale

St. Joseph’s College is committed to its mission of providing a strong academic and value-oriented education. To facilitate the educational and personal growth of its students, it is essential to maintain an appropriate environment.

The St. Joseph’s College community recognizes that the development of responsible student behavior and conduct is fostered by education, guidance, admonition and adherence to College policies and regulations. The Code of Student Conduct establishes a set of policies, standards of behavior, regulations, procedures, sanctions and appeal processes to prevent, limit and correct actions that may impede, obstruct or damage the educational environment, and threaten the maintenance of order.

The College encourages the cooperation of all members of the campus community, both in and out of the classroom and through online communities. All students are expected to be familiar with the Code of Student Conduct. A lack of familiarity with College policies, standards of behavior and regulations specified in the Code of Student Conduct is not an acceptable excuse for non-adherence.

The Code and supporting materials have been developed to guarantee procedural fairness to students when there has been an alleged failure to abide by the policies and regulations of St. Joseph’s College. All students will receive due process and student conduct outcome decisions will be based on an unbiased analysis of information conducted by a College Hearing Panel.

B. Commitment to Diversity

St. Joseph’s College is committed to equal student access to all campus benefits and services without regard to: race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, sexual orientation, familial status, disability, nationality, sex, gender identity or expression, or any other characteristic protected from discrimination by state and federal law. In order to foster an atmosphere of respect, understanding and goodwill among all members of our diverse campus community, the College will regard differences of race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, sexual orientation, familial status, disability, nationality, sex, gender identity or expression, or any other characteristic protected from discrimination by New York State Law as strengths to be honored, not mocked or derided. Thus, the College encourages all members of the community to behave in ways that enhance our diverse and multicultural society.

C. Basis for Findings

A general principle in all matters of student discipline will be that the College may base its determinations on a preponderance of the information which means, ‘it is more likely than not’ or a subtle conviction based upon the facts presented. In cases of misconduct where a sanction may be assessed, or in which a student so requests, the student will be informed in writing of the allegations and charges, will be given an opportunity to refute them, and will be afforded an avenue to appeal an adverse decision.
D. Authority

This Code of Student Conduct applies to incidents that occur on the main and/or satellite campuses of the College, through the SJC online platform, at any College related facility, at any College event, between College students who utilize computer or other equipment located on the College campus or at College related facilities. College events include all athletic, academic, and social events sponsored by any College related organization, whether on or off campus.

Off campus misconduct may be subject to the authority of the College and addressed through its conduct procedures if a student engages in prohibited conduct under such circumstances that reasonable grounds exist for believing that the accused student poses a threat to the life, health or safety of any member of the College community or to the property of the College.

Each student will be responsible for his/her conduct from the time of enrollment through the actual awarding of a degree. This includes the time before classes begin or after classes end each semester.

E. Complicity

A student will not, through act or omission, assist another student, individual, or group in committing or attempting to commit a violation of the St. Joseph’s College Code of Student Conduct. A student who has knowledge of another individual committing or attempting to commit a violation of the Code of Student Conduct is required to remove him or herself from the situation, and failure to do so when reasonable under the circumstances, may be the basis for a violation of this policy.

5. Mitigating or aggravating factors identified by the student and/or witnesses.

The use or abuse of alcohol and/or illegal substances will be considered an aggravating rather than a mitigating factor. Violations of the Code of Student Conduct that can be proven to have been motivated by illegal bias will result in the imposition of more severe sanctions. Victims may submit written statements detailing the effect of the offense on them and their ability to function as students. Repeated or aggravated violations of any provisions of this code may result in expulsion, suspension, or in the imposition of such lesser penalties as may be appropriate.

College Warning
This sanction indicates that a violation of the Code of Student Conduct has occurred and informs the student that a subsequent violation will be treated more severely.

College Probation
This sanction informs the student that a subsequent violation of the Code of Student Conduct will result in revocation of certain College privileges and a serious review of his or her status as a student at the College. Students on probation may be prohibited from being members of a recognized or registered student organization, participating in the activities of such organizations, serving as a representative of the College, or participating in intramural, club, or intercollegiate sports. Students on probation may also be restricted from certain campus facilities, including but not limited to the dining facilities and campus recreation facilities. Copies of the notification of this sanction will be sent to appropriate College offices to notify them about students placed on probation and the nature of their probationary status.

College Suspension
This sanction informs the student of College privileges that have been revoked for a specific period of time, which include, but are not limited to:

1. The ability to enroll as a student.
2. The ability to register for or attend specific courses.
3. The ability to be present on campus grounds.
4. The ability to attend or participate in certain College-sponsored events, on- or off-campus.
5. The ability to use or visit College facilities such as dining halls or recreation facilities, and to participate in student organizations or events.

Students who are suspended during the academic semester will be administratively assigned a “WD” for their coursework and will forfeit semester tuition and fees.

College Expulsion
The student is permanently separated from the College and is not permitted to register for courses, be present on campus, or attend or participate in College-sponsored events. Individuals who do not comply are subject to arrest for criminal trespass. Students who are expelled during the academic semester will be administratively assigned a “WD” for their coursework and will forfeit semester tuition and fees.

B. Stipulations

In addition to receiving a sanction for violating the Code of Student Conduct, a student may also receive stipulations based on the following criteria:

1. The severity of the case.
2. The impact of the violation(s) on the campus community.

C. Transcript Notations

Students disciplinarily suspended from the College for certain violations, will have a notation placed on their transcript. The notation will read, Disciplinary Suspension. If the student reenrolls, remains in good disciplinary standing and completes the requirements for graduation, the student may request removal of the notation at the time he/she files for graduation. Requests must be submitted to the Vice President for Student Life and a decision will be made in consultation with the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Students expelled from the College, as a result of disciplinary action, will have a permanent notation placed on their transcript, for certain violations. The notation will read Disciplinary Expulsion.

D. Refund Policy

No refunds of tuition or fees will be provided to any student who has been found responsible for violating the Code of Student Conduct and placed on probation, suspended or expelled from the College.

VI. College No Contact Order (CNCO)

If a student alleges to be a victim of any of the following:

- Violation C. Computer misuse
- Violation D. Dating, Relationship, or Sexual Misconduct
- Violation E. Harassment
- Violation G. Disruptive conduct
- Violation O. Infliction or Threat of Bodily Harm

A College No Contact Order (CNCO) will be issued by the Vice President for Student Life to assist the victim. The CNCO shall be served upon all parties and state the reasons in support of its issuance. Students who have been issued a CNCO will meet with the Vice President for Student Life to discuss the CNCO. The alleged student violator will be asked to provide written consent indicating compliance with the CNCO. If the alleged student violator fails to provide written consent, the Vice President for Student Life may proceed with a College Hearing Panel. The alleged student violator who fails to provide written consent may still be issued a CNCO, if warranted, for the protection and safety of the complainant pending a final hearing regarding the alleged violation. The College No Contact Order is not part of a student’s official and/or unofficial academic record.
VII. Adjudication of Disciplinary Cases

A. Filing a Complaint

In order to initiate a disciplinary proceeding, a member of the College community, faculty, staff or student, must file a complaint with the Office of the Vice President for Student Life and/or College Security. The document should include:

1. The name of the complainant.
2. The name of the person who is the object of the complaint.
3. The date or dates on which the alleged incident took place.
4. The place or places where the alleged incident took place.
5. A statement describing, in detail, the alleged incident.
6. The names of any witnesses to the alleged incident.
7. A one-sentence statement of the remedy sought by the complainant.
8. The signature of the complainant, and the date when the complaint is filed.

B. Responding to Complaints

Complaints may be submitted by St. Joseph’s College students, faculty, or administrators. Incident reports filed by College Security are also considered complaints. The complainant and/or written complaint do not constitute formal discipline charges. The Vice President for Student Life responding to the complaint will determine which College policy may have been violated after reviewing the complaint thoroughly. A student will be charged with any applicable conduct violations by electronic delivery notice.

Interim Suspension

The Vice President for Student Life (VPSL) may suspend a student from the College for an interim period pending disciplinary proceedings. The interim suspension will become immediately effective without prior notice whenever the VPSL determines there is a reasonable basis to conclude that the continued presence of the student at the College poses a significant risk and high probability of substantial harm or substantial disruption to others, or to property, which cannot be addressed through reasonable accommodations requested by the student. Interim Suspensions will exclude the student from being on campus or participating in any College activity, including academic work, unless otherwise notified.
A student suspended on an interim basis will be given an opportunity to meet with the VPSL to discuss the following issues only:

1. The reliability of the information concerning the student's alleged misconduct, including the matter of his or her identity.

2. Whether the conduct and surrounding circumstances reasonably indicate that the continued presence of the student on College premises poses a significant risk and high probability of substantial harm or substantial disruption to others, or to property, which cannot be addressed through reasonable accommodations requested by the student.

The Vice President for Student Life may affirm or alter the decision to suspend on an interim basis based on the meeting. If the decision is affirmed, a College Hearing Panel will proceed as expeditiously as possible. Any student placed on interim suspension will be given an opportunity to appear at a College Hearing Panel within ten business days of being placed on suspension or as soon as practical after the respondent is prepared to participate in a Hearing.

Notices

All notices will be delivered via the student’s College electronic mail and delivery will be considered confirmed upon the message being sent to the student’s account. It is the responsibility of the student to check his/her College email. Students should note that disciplinary action may be taken, and sanctions, and applicable stipulations, may be enacted, if they fail to attend the initial conduct conference or the subsequent College Hearing Panel. Students who fail to appear after proper notice will be deemed to have pled not responsible to the charges pending against them.

In cases where a student charged does not appear after proper notice or does not provide justifiable reason for non-appearance, the hearing will take place as scheduled and a decision rendered in the absence of the accused. In this circumstance, a student may not appeal under the ground that he or she has additional information that was not available at the time of the hearing.

Conduct Conference Meeting

After receiving a complaint and interviewing the complainant, the Vice President for Student Life will schedule a mandatory meeting with the respondent (the student accused of violating the Code) within five (5) business days of the electronic delivery of the violation notice to review the complaint and to discuss the conduct process. Parents, counselor or the College Advisor/Advocate will not be allowed in the Conduct Conference meeting. Only the respondent may request, in writing, the rescheduling of the Conduct Conference meeting; requests made by third parties, including counsel, will not be honored.

College Administrative Hearing

The Vice President for Student Life, as the College’s Conduct Officer, will meet with parties involved in the incident, including the complainant, the respondent, and witnesses, if necessary, and will render a decision. The respondent may choose to have an Administrative Hearing held immediately after their initial Conduct Conference. If the respondent chooses to have the Administrative Hearing at another time, the meeting must occur within three (3) business days of the initial Conduct Conference meeting. If the Conduct Officer determines that a preponderance of information indicates that the respondent is responsible for violating the Code of Student Conduct, the Conduct Officer will then issue appropriate sanctions, and applicable stipulations, to the respondent. The outcome will be electronically delivered within five (5) business days of the College Administrative Hearing. The respondent may appeal the Conduct Officer's decision. Instructions on filing an appeal will be provided to the student in writing within the outcome letter.

The respondent will also be informed in writing if the Conduct Officer determines that he or she is not responsible for any violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Administrative Hearings will be attended only by the Conduct Officer, the accused student, and an Advisor/Advocate, if one is chosen.

College Hearing Panel

The Vice President for Student Life will refer the discipline matter to a College Hearing Panel comprised of faculty and/or, staff and/or students within the next seven (7) business days. The VPSL will give the respondent a list of College Advocates/Advisors, upon request.

Delay of College Hearing Panel

Only the complainant or the respondent may submit a written request with reason to the VPSL for a postponement of the scheduled hearing. Requests made by third parties, including counsel, will not be honored. Except in emergency situations, no request for a postponement will be considered unless received at least four (4) business days before the scheduled hearing date. The VPSL will determine if a hearing delay is appropriate. Hearings will be rescheduled at a student's request only once. The respondent will be expected to attend the next scheduled hearing. The failure of the student to appear at a scheduled hearing without just cause may result in a finding of 'Responsible' against the absent student for violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Disciplinary sanctions and stipulations, if appropriate, will be based upon the information presented at the College Hearing Panel.

Hearing Panel Procedures

The Vice President for Student Life (VPSL) will review the complaint with the respondent. The respondent may be asked to submit a written response, to provide names of witnesses to the alleged incident, and to identify a College Advisor/Advocate if desired. The respondent may have only one College Advisor/Advocate.

The VPSL, or a designee, will provide copies of the complaint, response (if one is provided), list of witnesses and a summary of the preliminary investigation to the members of the hearing panel. It will be the responsibility of the respondent to provide copies to their witnesses and attorney.

The Hearing Panel will typically consist of two faculty members, two administrators, and three students. Quorum will consist of one faculty member, one administrator, and one student. There will be a chairperson for each hearing. It may be appropriate for certain discipline matters involving alleged violations of a particularly sensitive or confidential nature to be heard by faculty or administrators only. The complainant, respondent, or College representative presenting the charges may request the case be heard by a faculty/administrator panel. The VPSL or designee will determine if it is appropriate for a case to be heard in such a manner. If the VPSL or designee determines it is appropriate, a three-person faculty/administrator panel will be convened.

At the hearing, members of the hearing body will ask the respondent and his/her advisor or attorney to remain in the room throughout the hearing. Witnesses will be called one at a time, and excused at the conclusion of their testimony.
It will be the sole responsibility of members of the hearing body to question the respondent, the College representative presenting the charges, and their witnesses. Advisors, if any, may only offer advice on whether to answer any question posed to the respondent during the hearing and may not address the hearing body. At the conclusion of all testimony, the respondent and the College representative presenting the charges will be permitted a reasonable amount of time (not to exceed ten minutes) to amplify or clarify any aspect of the information or testimony presented.

If the respondent has a record of being found responsible for prior violations of the Student Code of Conduct, this information will be made available to the members of the hearing body. This information may then be used to assist in the determination of sanctions.

All matters upon which a decision may be based must be introduced into information at the hearing. The decision of the Hearing Panel will be based solely upon such information.

The Hearing Panel will examine all relevant facts and circumstances of the incident and will render a decision of ‘responsible or not responsible’ based upon a preponderance of the information.

Formal rules of evidence applicable to civil and criminal cases will not be applicable to the proceedings. It will be the initial responsibility of the Chair of the Hearing Panel to insure the relevancy of testimony.

Hearings are regarded as confidential and are closed to all but the respondent, the advisor or attorney for the respondent, the College representative presenting the charges, the hearing panelists, and any witnesses called to provide testimony.

The Chair of the hearing panel will send electronic notice of the decision of the Hearing Panel to the respondent through the VPSL or designee, within seven business days of the hearing.

Decisions may be appealed according to the standards outlined in Appeals, Section VIII. Decisions of a College Hearing Panel will be determined by a majority vote of the participating members.

VIII. Appeals

A student may appeal a conduct sanction if he/she believes one or more of the following conditions exist:

1. There was substantial and prejudicial failure to follow procedures and/or

2. The student can provide information and/or documentation that the sanction was unduly severe and/or

3. The student has additional information that was not available at the time of the hearing.

Appeals can only be made in writing and should be typed and submitted by the student who is appealing. Appeals will not be accepted from third parties, including but not limited to parents, relatives, employers, legal counsel, or faculty.

SJC Brooklyn students should send their appeals to the Vice President for Student Life in Long Island or designee; Long Island students should send their appeal to the VPSL Brooklyn or designee.

Appeals must be submitted within five business days of the date the delivery of the Sanction Letter.
Late appeals will not be considered. Responses to appeal letters will be sent to students within seven business days of receipt of the written letter of appeal.

In most cases, students who are appealing their sanction(s) will not be subject to the imposed sanction until their appeal has been resolved. In cases that involve substantial threat, the campus VPSL maintains the right to continue or initiate an interim suspension, pending the outcome of the appeal.

Appeal outcomes can:

1. Affirm the original decision and support sanction and corresponding stipulations.
2. Affirm the original decision but modify the original sanction.
3. Oppose the original decision and determine a new outcome, which may include the dismissal of charges.
